Order & Sequence

After begging my parents to get a dog for weeks, my dad woke me up early one Saturday morning. He wouldn't tell me where we were going as he drove over 30 minutes into the country. Finally, he asked, "What color lab puppy did you say you wanted?" Shocked and thrilled, I chose a black lab puppy and named him Buck. Then, we went to the pet store and I picked out a collar, leash, and some puppy food. When we got home, I played with Buck for hours!
